The GAZETTE, OF THE State of South-Carolina.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 29, 1778. [No. 2097.]

CHARLES-TOWN, June 24th, 1778.

REDUCED, by the dreadful Calamity of Fire which befell this Town on the 15th of January laſt, to begin the World anew, at an advanced Period of Life,—encouraged by the favourable Reception his Endeavours to promote the General Good have always met with—and thence flattering himſelf, that a Continuation of his Publications may ſtill have ſuch Tendency—Mr. Timothy, notwithſtanding the peculiar Difficulties that muſt attend it, this Day reſumes the Publication of the GAZETTE of this STATE, with Mr. Nicholas Boden, upon the following

NEW CONDITIONS:

I. The Price to Town Subſcribers to be Four Dollars for the preſent Year; and to Gentlemen in the Country, who deſire to have them made up in Packets and directed, Five Dollars.

II. The Subſcription to be paid in advance; for which printed Receipts will be given, by TIMOTHY and BODEN.

III. The Gazette to be punctually and regularly publiſhed every Wedneſday Morning, preciſely at 9 o'clock—(to be ſent for at the Office, the North-Eaſt-Corner of the State-Houſe) until it ſhall be more convenient to diſtribute them at the Subſcribers reſpective Houſes.

V. A Deduction of one Quarter, at the old Price, to be made to all the late Subſcribers, being ſo much due them, at the Time of the Fire.

For ſome Time, the Size (but not the Spirit of the Paper) will be unavoidably contracted, from the very ſmall Portion of Types that have been ſaved from the Fire (being only Part of what were uſed in the Gazette printed on the 13th of January laſt) and its Friends muſt be content to receive it on ſmaller Paper than uſual, till new Materials can be received from Abroad; to obtain which, as ſoon as poſſible, no Pains have, are, or will be ſpared.

There cannot be, to Timothy, a more mortifying Circumſtance, than the being compelled (by the enormous Coſt of every imported Article and Neceſſary of Life, and his preſent Situation) to require the Subſcription in advance, and to raiſe his Prices of Printing: But, when the Extent of his Loſs, and the amazing Expence that muſt, at this Time, attend the procuring the merely neceſſary Printing Materials, are conſidered, he flatters himſelf, that no one can ſuſpect him of having the leaſt Inclination to follow the common Track, or will think the preſent Terms unreaſonable.

Gentlemen who are diſpoſed to continue their Names on the Subſcription-Liſt, and ſuch others as may incline to have theirs added, upon the NEW CONDITIONS, are requeſted to ſend their Addreſs as ſoon as poſſible, to Nicholas Boden, at the Office in the State-Houſe, or his Dwelling-Houſe in Amen Corner, Union Street continued.

New Advertiſements.

Head Quarters, Charles-Town, July 25, 1778.

General Orders by General MOULTRIE.

THE General approves of the ſentence of the general court martial, of which Col. Roberts was preſident, paſſed on Lieutenant Jones, which ſentence is as follows:

The Court having duly conſidered the circumſtances attending the caſe of Lieutenant Jones, and the evidences againſt him, are of opinion, That Lieutenant Taggart did not bring Lieutenant Jones to a general court martial, with the laudable deſign of putting a check to the pernicious cuſtom of dueling, otherwiſe he would have ordered him in arreſt on the receipt of the anonymous note: for this and a variety of reaſons ariſing from the circumſtances of the caſe, they eſteem the proſecution frivolous, and diſmiſs it as ſuch.

Lieutenants Jones and Taggart are accordingly diſcharged from arreſt, and are ordered to join their regiment. A. D'ELLIENT, Brig. Major.

CHARLES-TOWN, July 29.

SEVERAL Accounts have been received since our laſt, over land, and by water, which give us good grounds to believe, that we ſhall ſoon have the happineſs of congratulating our readers, upon as important an event; as any that has happened ſince the commencement of our glorious conteſt for the rights of human nature.—The firſt accounts came over land, and were related from hand-bills printed at Baltimore in Maryland: the ſubſtance of them, that there had been a ſmart action on the 28th of June, in Jerſies, between the forces of the United States, commanded by General Waſhington, and the Britiſh army lately withdrawn from Philadelphia, under Sir Henry Clinton, purſued by the former; ſo much to the diſadvantage of the latter, that our troops remained maſters of the field of action, and the enemy were obliged to retreat two miles from it. But we ſhall preſent our readers with the particulars of the laſt, as the accounts bear many marks of authenticity. They were given to us by Capt. Alexander Stockdale, who arrived here laſt Sunday in 15 days from South-Quay in Virginia, and 4 from Beaufort in North Carolina. He ſays he left the Quay the 11th inſt. that on the 30th a hand bill was received there, dated the 9th from Williamsburgh, containing an account ſent by General Waſhington to Congreſs, and by their order publiſhed under the ſignature of "Charles Thomſon," that a detachment of 300 men, under a Colonel, with 3 pieces of cannon, having on the 28th of June, advanced and taken poſt on an eminence pretty near the enemy's army, a moſt furious aſſault on them enſued, but they moſt heroically defended themſelves and preſerved their artillery, till Major General Lee came up with 3000 men to their ſupport; that the General then retreated, to draw the enemy after him; and he ſo far ſucceeded, that they purſued him, till he joined the main body under General Waſhington: That the action very ſoon after became general, and continued till dark, when our army remained maſters of the field, near Monmouth Court-Houſe, where they found upwards of 200 dead, the Court-Houſe filled with wounded, and were informed that 60 waggon-loads were carried off. That our troops having been exceſſively fatigued, did not purſue immediately. That during the night, Sir Henry Clinton made a forced march of 6 miles, towards Black Point or Neverſinks. That the action had been very ſharp; that the officers had ſuffered more in proportion than the men, and ſeveral of diſtinction had fallen on both ſides: But as no return had yet been made, our exact loſs was not certainly known, and the General deferred giving that and other particulars till a time of more leiſure, as he meant ſtill to cut the enemy off, from reaching a place of embarkation. Captain Stockdale ſays this was the ſubſtance of the hand-bill, of which ſo many gentlemen were taking copies, that it was impoſſible for him to get one. He alſo adds, that while at Beaufort in North Carolina, on the 22d inſtant, a Newbern paper was received there, which mentioned our loſs in the above action to be 900, that of the enemy about 13 or 1450; and that General Waſhington's army afterwards got a-head of Clinton, and entirely cut off its paſſage either to Blackcreek or Sandy-Hook.

Captain Stockdale likewiſe informs us, that the Experiment privateer brig, of New-York, Captain David Squires, commiſſioned by Governor Bruere of Bermuda, who paſſed in ſight of this Bar the 18th ult. had been cruizing on the coaſt of North Carolina ever ſince, quitted only 12 days ago, with 7 prizes, amongſt them a French ſhip of 20 guns bound for this port, to a part of whoſe crew he gave the long boat, in which they got aſhore at Bogue inlet.

A letter from North Carolina of the 19th inſt. ſays, Lord Howe had ordered 4 men of war to Cheſapeak Bay, to cut out all French ſhips they may find trading there.

The Comte de Sabran, Captain Bartholemi Garguy, mounting 26 guns, is ſafe in this port, from Marſeilles.

Laſt Saturday night arrived here the ſloop Dolphin, John Roberts late maſter, from Jamaica, intended for St. Auguſtine, till the 20th inſtant, when ſix Americans that were on board (who had been a conſiderable time priſoners in Jamaica, and had no other way to get off the iſland, but by aſſiſting to navigate merchant veſſels belonging to the enemy, or by entering on board their ſhips of war) thought proper to alter the voyage, by taking charge of the veſſel, quitting convoy, and ſteering for this port. The fleet of which this ſloop was one, conſiſted of 204 ſail, and ſailed from Blue fields Bay in Jamaica, the 23th of June, under convoy of the following ſhips of war, viz. the Southampton Frigate of 26 guns, Capt. Garnier, the Hind, Oſtrich and Camel of 20 guns each, and the Stork ſloop of 14, which laſt left them about the 10th inſtant, to proceed for her ſtation at Penſacola. The ſloop's cargo conſiſts of 80 hogſheads of rum, and ſome other ſaleable articles. And there were paſſengers on board, Mr. James Jamieſon, formerly of this town merchant (but ſome time ſince compelled to depart this ſtate, on account of an improper correſpondence with the enemy) Mrs. Jamieſon (his lady) and 4 children, and Mrs. Margaret Bennet.—Amongſt the papers found on board, are ſeveral letters of Capt. Venture, Harry Mickie, &c. &c. to Mr. Jamieſon, and ſtrong recommendations of him by the Captain to Lord Howe and others.

By the Jamaica News-papers to the 20th of June, we find, That on the 5th a Jamaica privateer carried into Montego-Bay, a Dutch ſnow called de Verre Keyker, Capt. Kamer, laden with elephant's teeth, tobacco, coffee and ſome rum, taken off Tiberon, on ſuſpicion of belonging to Mr. Murray of Jamaica, and trafficking with the Americans; but by her papers belonging to Flushing, had been to the coaſt of Guiney for ſlaves, ſold them at Curacoa, and from thence was returning for Holland.—That on the 7th a ſevere ſhock of an earthquake had been felt at Kingſtone and in its neighbourhood, which however did no damage.—That the Hon. John Dalling, Eſq; had received a Commiſſion appointing him Governor and Commander in Chief of that iſland: That, upon receiving a diſpatch, with copies of the French Ambaſſador's late notification to the court of London, the Britiſh King's meſſage to both houſes of parliament upon that occaſion, and the addreſs of each; he had called the General Aſſembly together, and in a ſpeech recommended, that they would without delay take the neceſſary meaſures for its ſecurity and defence; acquainting them, that at the ſame time he had the King's command to aſſure them, in caſe of a war, they ſhould receive all the protection that could be afforded, and that there would be a conſiderable augmentation of the ſquadron on that ſtation.—That in conſequence of circular letters from the Governor, the foot militia had commenced parochial guards.—And that the Minerva Frigate, Capt. Scott, was arrived there from the coaſt of Guiney.

Our other advices from Jamaica are, that a few days before the fleet left that iſland, two New-England veſſels were carried in there, by the crews.—That a brig was fitting out at Montego-Bay, which might ſail about this time, to cruize on this coaſt, called the Waſp, to mount 16 guns, and be commanded by Capt. John Smith. And that the conduct of Admiral Sir Peter Parker (who now commands the fleet at Jamaica) to ſuch Americans as have the misfortune to be carried there, is as widely different from that of his predeceſſor (Admiral Gayton) as the true Gentleman's character differs from that of the ſavage.

Another fleet was to ſail from Jamaica the 20th Inſtant. The Northern Poſt is juſt come in, but has only brought Letters from Georgetown.

Thurſday laſt Capt. Jonathan Greely, returned into Port with a Prize Brig of 14 Guns, which was bound from Scotland for New-York, with a Cargo of Proviſions, &c. From the Scotch Papers found in board ſaid Brig, to the 11th of April we have extracted the following Articles of Intelligence, viz.

LONDON, March 19.

THIS morning an expreſs arrived from Portſmouth at the India Houſe, with advice, that all the crews of the outward bound ſhips belonging to the company, had been impreſſed into the navy.

We hear alſo, that the ſeamen belonging to the outward bound Weſt-Indiamen, and other ſhips, have been preſſed.

So ſtrict was the ſearch for ſeamen on Tueſday night, that they took the crews of the ſhips belonging to the Hudſon's Bay company, which were juſt on the point of ſailing.

All buſineſs is ſtopt on the river for the preſent, in the coal and corn trades, &c. the men being afraid to appear, as no protections are a ſafeguard.

On the 15th inſt. General Boyd waited on his majeſty at the levee, and received orders to repair to his government of Gibraltar, with all expedition.

The ſame day Sir John Irwin, commander in chief of the forces in Ireland, took leave of his majeſty, and to-morrow ſets off for that kingdom.

Yeſterday a meſſage was ſent with diſpatches for Sir Robert Murray Keith, his Majeſty's ambaſſador at the Court of Vienna.

When the laſt diſpatches left Petersburgh, a courier was arrived with advice, that a freſh treaty of accommodation was opened, which it was hoped would prevent the renewal of a war with the Turks; but that otherwiſe every preparation was making to begin a vigorous campaign.

We are informed, that three fleets are to be ſent out early this ſpring; one into the Bay of Biſcay, as a fleet of obſervation; another to reinforce the ſquadron at Jamaica; and the other to Gibraltar, to cruize

MARCH 28.

The following is a copy of his Majeſty's meſſage preſented to the Houſe of Commons on Monday the 23d Inſtant:

The French King having concluded a treaty of amity and commerce with his Majeſty's revolted ſubjects in North-America, and his Majeſty having received advice, that the warlike preparations in France became every day more conſiderable; his majeſty thinks, that in this critical conjuncture, he ſhould not act conſiſtently with the care and concern which he always feels for his faithful people, if he omitted any means in his power, that may contribute to their defence; therefore, in purſuance of the acts of parliament enabling his majeſty to call out and aſſemble the militia, in the caſes therein mentioned, his majeſty hath thought it right to make this communication to the houſe of commons, to the end that his majeſty may, if he ſhall think it proper, cauſe the militia to be drawn out and embodied, and to march, as occaſion ſhall require.

APRIL 1. The greateſt precaution is immediately to be taken to put the kingdom of Ireland into the beſt ſtate of defence poſſible, by ſtrengthening the fortifications on the ſea-coaſts, and all the forts and batteries where they may be judged neceſſary.

So great a ſtagnation has the approach of a war thrown upon commerce in every branch, that the inſurance from Corke to Bourdeaux, which was generally done at three per cent. is now at the very advanced price of ten guineas.

By the firſt article of the Family Compact between the Houſe of Bourbon, France and Spain, reciprocally agree, "that they will, for the future, look upon "every power as their enemy, that ſhall become the "enemy of either,"—ſo that however Spain may ſhuffle the matter, to anſwer her own immediate intereſts, ſhe is ultimately bound by ſolemn treaty to aſſiſt her ally, in the impending conteſt between that State and Great Britain.

APRIL 2. Dr. Franklin is the idol of Paris: All ages and ſexes join in his praiſe, and the ladies ſtrive moſt which ſhall do him the kindeſt offices. In ſhort, he has perpetuated his name to eternity. Happy had it been for England if ſhe had liſtened to his advice.

The news of the recognition of the independence of America by France, was received at the Hague with every demonſtration of joy. The States General only waited the example of other powers to rejoice, that the oppreſſed Americans had ſhaken off the yoke of bondage.

A correſpondent, ſays, that Lord Chatham has been applied to to come into adminiſtration at the expreſs requeſt of a great perſonage, through the medium of Mr. T. Pitt; but that great ſtateſman primarily inſiſts not only on diſplacing the whole of the preſent cabinet, but the diſſolution of the preſent parliament.

It is ſaid, that the declaration of war againſt France will be deferred until the ſucceſs of our conciliatory meaſures are known.

A conſtant correſpondent informs us, that he received a letter laſt night from France, which ſtrongly intimates, that their fleet is gone to America, to act in favour of Waſhington, probably, he ſays, to block up General Howe.

APRIL 7. By a gentleman juſt arrived from Venice, we learn, that application has been made by the Americans to that State, for 8 frigates and 16 gallies; which the Doge and Senate had agreed to furniſh them with, upon very advantageous conditions.

In the preſent fluctuation of councils reſpecting France and America, it is ſaid, Government are reſolved as to one point, which is a vigorous ſea-war with the provincials, and blocking up all their ports, while our troops are to be withdrawn to the Weſt-Indies [to be buried there.] With this deſign Lord Howe is to be continued in his command, while the army in thoſe iſlands, is to act, either upon the offenſive or defenſive, as occaſion may require.

Yeſterday two houſes in the city, in the Jamaica trade, ſtopped payment; and it is feared, that the next week will produce more inſtances of the kind.

Yeſterday a meſſenger arrived with ſome diſpatches of importance from the Court of Berlin, which were laid immediately before his Majeſty.

The American Commiſſioners had yeſterday a long conference with the King at the Queen's Palace.

The Peerage Patent is making out for Lord George Germaine. The Engliſh title with which he is to be complimented, is that of "Drayton."

Yeſterday the Militia for the county of Surry were aſſembled at Kingſton, by orders of Lord Onſlow, Lord Lieutenant of that county, and had their arms and cloathing delivered to them.

The militia when all embodied, will amount to 30,840 effective men.

Extract of a letter from G. Williams, to his brother Major Edward Williams, of the royal artillery in America, dated Terreville, near Glaſgow, March 23, 1778.

"The ſituation of public affairs in this iſland, wear a moſt horrid aſpect; the blunders of thoſe who ſteer the helm have produced a French war, and what is now to be the fate of this lately flouriſhing empire, ſeems very deplorable indeed.—The cry of arms is up, and how this confuſion will end, Heaven only knows.

Extract of a Letter from Greenock, dated April 9.

"The only thing worth mentioning to you, is, our port is full of tranſport ſhips, and numbers of troops are coming here, to be ſhipped off for America, viz. part of the 42d, the whole of the 70th, part of 71ſt, the Glaſgow Volunteers, Duke of Hamilton's, Lord M'Leod's, and Duke of Argyle's new raiſed troops, of 1000 men each, their deſtinations are part to New-York, Philadelphia, St. Auguſtine, Halifax, St. John's, Newfoundland, in order to fortify and protect all the ſea places. It is alſo ſaid the firſt operation of our troops this campaign will be, to bombard and lay Boſton in aſhes. May all the rebellious ſet be therein conſumed with the city, where it firſt began. It ſeems we muſt have a French war: May the God of Armies go out with our troops, that the perfidious wretches may be ſeverely puniſhed."

PARIS, March 24. M. Girard, firſt Commiſſioner for foreign affairs, has received from the Miniſtry his credentials, with which he is going to America, in quality of Miniſter Plenipotentiary from this court to the United States.

HAGUE, March 28. If we may credit the reports ſpread at Paris, the court of Verſailles has formed an alliance with four monarchs of Europe, who are to accede to the treaty lately concluded with the United States of America.
